Dear Katie,

I hope that you are well.

You may be aware that an application has been filed by Hodge Jones and Allen Solicitors on behalf of a non-party in which the Court is requested to set aside the Order. Although the application has not been listed yet, the Council wishes to respond to Hodge Jones and Allen as soon as possible. Clearly any application, any response to it and any adjudication upon it will need to be decided in the context of the Order from the hearing in May. Are you able to confirm when this will be ready to be handed down?

Kind regards,

Clive

Dear Clive,

Happy New Year! I hope you had a lovely break too.

I do have an update from Mr Justice Sweeting. He has nearly finished the judgment and hopes it will be ready for distribution by Monday. His Lordship sends his apologies for this delay.

Kind regards,

Katie

His Lordship still hopes to have the judgment ready for hand down next week.

The jury is now out for our criminal trial, so there's a possibility a matter may arise, but otherwise there is unlikely to be any delay.

WITNESS STATEMENT OF CLIVE TOBIN

I, CLIVE TOBIN, of The Council House, South Street, Atherstone, CV9 1DE,
Solicitor and Local Government Officer WILL SAY AS FOLLOWS:

1. I am employed by North Warwickshire Borough Council (“the Council”) as the Head of Legal Services. I am duly authorised on behalf of the Council to make this witness statement.
2. I make this witness statement in relation to the interim injunction and power of arrest granted by Mr Justice Sweeting, on a without notice basis, on 14 April 2022, and the ongoing proceedings related to that injunction (“the injunction”).
3. By way of introduction, during the week commencing 11 April following discussions between myself and Steve Maxey, the Council’s Chief Executive, the Claimant decided to issue proceedings for an injunction to prohibit the dangerous and disruptive behaviour then being undertaken by protestors at the Kingsbury Oil Terminal (the “Terminal”). I authorised Ms Ryan, Principal Solicitor, to issue those proceedings which she did on 13th April, and they came before Mr Justice Sweeting, as I have said, the following day.

Additional Defendants

4. At the time that the proceedings were heard on 14 April, the only names of protestors known to the Claimant were those 18 Defendants named in the proceedings. Since that time, additional names have become known.
5. Committal proceedings are proceeding against Mr Jake Handling (Proposed Defendant 24) and, Mr Josh Smith (PD 38) following their arrest inside the Shell Depot at Kingsbury Oil Terminal (the “Terminal”) on 23 April 2022.

6. They were also arrested on 15 April 2022 inside the Terminal, and it was intended to produce them to court on 19 April, but it was necessary to release them prior to production as the custody time limit under s.27(4), Police and Justice Act 2006 was about to expire. The Claimant has decided not to pursue Mr Handling and Mr Smith in relation to the arrest on 15 April on the basis that the Claimant can not be certain that they were aware of the injunction on that occasion.

7. Committal proceedings are being pursued against 16 protestors who were arrested while blocking an entrance to the Terminal on 26 April 2022. They are the following proposed Defendants:
 - (20) Sarah Benn
 - (21) Molly Berry
 - (22) Emily Brocklebank
 - (25) Gwen Harrison
 - (26) Simon Milner-Edwards
 - (27) Barry Mitchell
 - (30) David Nixon
 - (31) Stephanie Pride
 - (32) Amy Pritchard
 - (33) Simon Reding
 - (34) Margaret Reid
 - (35) Catherine Rennie-Nash
 - (36) Isabel Rock
 - (37) Vivienne Shah
 - (38) Josh Smith
 - (39) Hannah Torrance Bright
 - (40) Sarah Webb

8. It is intended by the Claimant to pursue committal proceedings against:
 - (28) Christian Murray-Leslie and
 - (29) Diana Martinin relation to alleged breaches of the Order over the night and early morning of 14-15 April 2022, when they affixed themselves to each other on a gantry inside the Shell Depot of the Terminal. They were not arrested by police for breach of the injunction (though they were arrested for criminal matters) and paper committal proceedings will be issued shortly.

9. Finally, the Claimant is also aware of Katheryn Dowds (PD 23) who was arrested for breach of the Injunction on 15 April 2022, inside the Valero Depot at the Terminal. Although she is not being made subject to committal proceedings, as the Claimant can not be certain that she was aware of the injunction, the Claimant now has her name and address.

10. The Claimant seeks permission to add these additional 21 people as the 20th-40th Defendants inclusive. I do not believe that they should remain within the 19th Defendant ("Persons Unknown") now that they are identifiable and have been arrested inside the areas edged in red on the map attached to the injunction.

Power of Arrest

11. Secondly, I have observed that the Power of Arrest issued on 14 April 2022, and which applies to the Order, states that it applies to the order made on 10 March 2022. As stated above, since the Council's application had not been made on 10 March and was not heard until 14 April, this appears to be a typographical error and I would ask that the Court corrects this using its power in Part 40.12 of the Civil Procedure Rules, so as to refer to the Injunction dated 14 April 2022, as amended by Order dated 21 April 2022.

Committal evidence

12. Thirdly, I ask that the Court allows the Claimant to rely on the section 9 witness statements completed by police officers and other witnesses including Mr Dawson, and the witness statements made by Mr Maxey in relation to the committal proceedings.

13. Although CPR Part 81 requires evidence on committal to be made by way of affidavit, all the statements contain declarations of similar effect to a statements of truth, which state that the maker of the statement understands the consequences of making a statement which they do not believe to be true. Moreover, Mr Maxey is a solicitor and an officer of the court, as well as the Chief Executive of the Claimant, and the other witnesses aside from Mr Dawson (whose statement is in s.9 format) are police officers.

14. Given the time available, it has not been possible to obtain affidavit evidence from those witnesses. I am aware that an extensive policing operation is ongoing at the Terminal and that over 200 arrests have been made in total in connection with these protests, the vast majority of which relate to criminal charges. The police officers involved in the operation have prepared section 9 witness statements in relation to those arrests and resulting criminal charges which set out the events that have occurred at the Terminal and include the events which are alleged to amount to breach of the Injunction. These statements are made contemporaneously and, given the number of arrests and the fact that many of the incidents have occurred out of ordinary office hours, it would not be practical for all those officers to prepare and swear affidavit evidence in time for any committal proceedings, particularly for those in custody

Service on solicitors/by post

15. Further, I am aware that those arrested for alleged breaches of the Injunction reside in various parts of the United Kingdom, none being resident in Warwickshire. Accordingly, it is not practical for the Claimant to serve Committal Applications and evidence on those concerned personally. I therefore ask the Court to permit service of those applications and evidence either on solicitors where they are represented or else by post, if necessary using recorded delivery.
16. I would ask that the Court amends the Injunction in the form attached to this application, and marked as CHT/1, to allow these means of service for committal applications and evidence on those alleged to have breached the order in the future.

STATEMENT OF TRUTH

I believe(s) that the facts stated in this witness statement are true. I understand that proceedings for contempt of court may be brought against anyone who makes, or causes to be made, a false statement in a document verified by a statement of truth without an honest belief in its truth.

Dear Sir / Madam

North Warwickshire Borough Council v 18 named defendants and persons unknown
Claim no. QB-2022-0001236

We refer to the above referenced claim and associated interim orders posted on the North Warwickshire Borough Council website.

We act for Jessica Branch, who is associated with Extinction Rebellion but who has not participated in any protests in North Warwickshire, nor does she intend to do so. As such she does not consent to being identified as a named defendant. Nevertheless she is concerned by the scope of the injunction order.

Please provide the following copy documents as soon as practicable, in light of the forthcoming return hearing on 28 April 2022:

1. Skeleton argument for the hearing on 14 April 2022 before Mr Justice Sweeting
2. Note of the hearing 14 April 2022
3. Judgment of Mr Justice Sweeting
4. Order dated 10 March 2022, referred to in the order granting power of arrest dated 14 April 2022
5. Any skeleton argument, note of hearing and judgment in relation to the order dated 10 March 2022.

Yours faithfully

26 April 2022

Dear Sir / Madam

North Warwickshire Borough Council v 18 named defendants and persons unknown
Claim no. QB-2022-0001236

We refer to your letter dated 26 April 2022.

The Claimant has come to court to obtain ex parte relief which affects an indeterminate number of persons. There is therefore there is a duty of full and frank disclosure and a duty for the Claimant to keep a note and make the skeleton arguments available to those affected. The return date is Thursday.

While our client does not intend to breach any injunction she is nonetheless concerned about its impact and the restriction of freedom of expression and may wish to participate in protests in the future. She is also concerned over the legality of the order and the chilling effect it has.

In any event, a person cannot judge whether s/he might wish to intervene or wish to become a defendant unless s/he is provided with sufficient information about the legal basis for the injunction, which includes the note of judgment and the skeleton argument submitted to the court.

There are clearly errors in the documentation that is publicly available, as the typographical error on the hearing date shows. The publicly available documentation provides very limited information if any on the legal basis of the injunction and the arguments put to the court.

Without the skeleton argument and note of hearing we are unable to assess the legal basis of the injunction or whether the court was provided with all relevant information and arguments. We cannot therefore properly assess whether we would wish to make representations on the return date.

We require this material and have already asked for it, and have now been refused. We require it forthwith. If the Claimant continues to refuse to supply it, that failure may well be raised before the judge on the return date, and may well be a reason for depriving the Claimant of its discretionary relief, or for the matter having to be adjourned, with the resulting costs.

As a public body the Claimant is obliged to facilitate the right to protest protected under Articles 10 and 11 ECHR in your locality. It is also bound by general duties of transparency and fairness in decision making. Adopting an unnecessarily obstructive position on the provision of information does not further these obligations.

Yours faithfully
